Answer two questions.

In answering each question, you should draw upon your knowledge and understanding gained from the study of political ideas, concepts and thinkers, and apply these to the politics of the UK. Where appropriate, you may make reference to other political systems as well as the European Union.

- 1 Discuss the view that modern representatives are no longer trustees. [50]
- 2 'The UK Parliament is still sovereign.' Discuss. [50]
- 3 'Power in the UK is no longer exercised by a permanent ruling elite.' Discuss. [50]
- 4 Discuss the extent to which equality is still an important principle in UK politics. [50]
- 5 'Breaking the law for political purposes can never be justified.' Discuss. [50]
- 6 Assess the extent to which nationalism has now become the most influential ideology in the UK. [50]
- 7 Discuss the view that liberalism is now in decline. [50]
- 8 Discuss the significance of feminism in modern British politics. [50]

Write the number of each question answered in the margin.

A large vertical margin area on the left side of the page, bounded by a solid vertical line on the left and a dotted vertical line on the right. The area is filled with horizontal dotted lines, providing space for writing the number of questions answered.

The page contains a large writing area defined by a solid vertical line on the left side and horizontal dotted lines extending across the page. The dotted lines are spaced evenly, creating a series of horizontal rows for writing. The entire page is otherwise blank.
