Paper 2 Reading Passages (Extended)

May/June 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

© IGCSE is a registered trademark.

This document consists of 12 printed pages.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

	General notes Candidates should select ideas from the passage (see page 6) and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage. Look for an appropriate register for the genre, and a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate's own words. Annotate A1 for references to Harrold's feelings about the various events at home Annotate A2 for references to changes at work and the factors Harrold is weighing up Annotate A3 for references to options Harrold might be considering. Responses might use the following ideas: A1: Harrold's feelings about the various events at home over the past few months Reward an idea about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • neighbour dying (det. [dev. attitude to loyal staff, (initially) hated the presentation event] • new rota (det. working lunch-hours) [dev. open longer, more pressurised] • new staff / younger staff brought in (det. Lisa the Saturday girl, bespectacled youth) [dev. (over) enthusiastic, not expert] • rebranding / modernisation of pet shop(s) (det. digitalised emporium(s), megastore) [dev. at odds with his view, tacky] • publicity campaign(s) / hard selling (det. promotional stickers / signs, e.g. H for Hamster signs, piped music) [dev. feels over-commercialised, aimed at children (and / or parents), not in animals' best interests, noise upsets rabbit] • exact nature of new job (det. sales, management, Birdbrain title) [dev. emphasis on selling animals not caring for them, birds only, concern re management style / approach expected, required to wear new title, e.g. on a badge / T-shirt]

Marking Criteria for Question 1Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 1: 13–15	The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. Developed ideas are sustained and well related to the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is supporting detail throughout, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. All three bullets are well covered. A consistent and convincing voice is used.
Band 2: 10–12	The response demonstrates a competent reading of the passage. A good range of ideas is evident. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent, helpful supporting detail, contributing to a clear sense of purpose. All three bullets are covered. An appropriate voice is used.
Band 3: 7–9	The passage has been read reasonably well. A range of straightforward ideas is offered. Opportunities for development are rarely taken. Supporting detail is present but there may be some mechanical use of the passage. There is uneven focus on the bullets. The voice is plain.
Band 4: 4–6	There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or, in places, lack focus on the passage or the question. Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There may be some reliance on lifting from the text. One of the bullets may not be addressed. The voice might be inappropriate.
Band 5: 1–3	The response is either very general , with little reference to the passage, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is either insubstantial or unselective. There is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage.
Band 6: 0	There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage.

Table B, Writing: Structure and order, style of language
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1 5	The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and / or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout.
Band 2 4	Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structures and well sequenced.
Band 3 3	Language is clear but comparatively plain and / or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure.
Band 4 2	There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage.
Band 5 1	Expression and structure lacks clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original.
Band 6 0	The response cannot be understood.

Question	Answer	Marks
2	This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks): R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects  Re-read the descriptions of: (a) the pet shop and Harrold in paragraph 2, beginning ‘Pet shops had changed...’ (b) People and presentations in paragraph 8, beginning ‘Increasingly animated presentations...’. Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.  General notes This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words (listed in the mark scheme on page 9) that carry connotations additional to general meaning. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them. The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar / syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary. (a) the pet shop and Harrold The general effect is of the contrast between Harrold’s gentle, careful demeanour and the brash, manipulative commercialism of the new company. morphed: changed smoothly from one image into another one, reminiscent of computer games / fantasy action films / science fiction films, taken on a new form marketing magicians: (image) actions of advertising department have created a new reality, as if casting a spell over the place, supernatural power digitalised emporiums: dependent on technology, computerised retail	10

	outlets, huge variety of goods, contrast to simple pet shop, ostentatious, impersonal pampered poppets: (image) indulged pets, treated inappropriately (as if dolls / children / puppets) tutted softly: quiet expression of disapproval, understated and subtle, modifying his usual habit, resigned acceptance expertly stroking and soothing: assured calming action as if easing pain, indicative of patient and caring attitude to the animals in his care thought wryly: can see the humour in the situation, word play with writing on wall, typically understated wincing: slight involuntary shrinking movement or grimace, as if creates physical pain excruciating batch: quantity produced simultaneously, e.g. as in baking / production line, exaggeration of effect – as if their presence causes Harrold actual and intense physical pain (stickers) splatter-gunned: (image) publicity stickers are all over the shop, suggests indiscriminate blanket coverage of automatic weapon, splashed around in bright colours as if paint-balling reminiscent of a children’s illustrated alphabet: font crafted to remind the customers of nursery style decoration / old-fashioned books for very young children, cynical use of pester power / cute factor / retro image (b) people and presentations The general effect is insincere, crass sales-speak contrasted with Harrold’s wry humour. increasingly animated: lively, energetic, (over) enthusiastic, sense of competition building, overtones of cartoons, exaggerated a series of loud T-shirts: (image) dehumanises the people presenting, who may well be speaking loudly, garishly decorated informal dress / the whole marketing hype adorned: decorated, make more beautiful, ironic crudely-penned catchphrase: slogans lack subtlety, poorly-written, suggests Harrold feels superior / an outsider mild surprise: understated reaction, suggests some amusement at Lisa’s expense ‘Lisa-the-LIZARD-lady’: Lisa’s use of alliteration is childish, suggests she chose lizards thanks to the initial letter rather than because she had any real interest in them scaling great heights: going to great lengths to help, reference to scales of lizards, slogan to try an impress and / or Harrold’s private joke still captive: (image) unable to escape, there under duress and only until he can find an opportunity to leave, has been trying to get away, suggestive of animal in cage / prisoner resisting the impulse to add a number as a protest: as if being reduced to a number – a prisoner / corporate team member rather than an individual, containing his reaction

Marking Criteria for Question 2

Table A, Reading: Language analysis:
Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1 9–10	Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 2 7–8	Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 3 5–6	A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 4 3–4	The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 5 1–2	The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 6 0	The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.
