Paper 3 Directed Writing and Composition

May/June 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

® IGCSE is a registered trademark.

This document consists of 8 printed pages.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

| Question | Answer  | Marks |
|-----------------|--|--------------|
|                 | Responses might use the following ideas: A1 Arguments in favour of school uniform <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• lessons learned about adult life – obedience, conformity</li> <li>• instils sense of identity</li> <li>• may combat bullying</li> <li>• irons out differences between rich and poor</li> <li>• gangs can impose dress rules in school if the school doesn't</li> <li>• strict rules stop students turning up in outlandish garb</li> </ul> |              |
|                 | A2 Arguments against school uniform <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• wastes time in school with nit-picking about uniform</li> <li>• affects relationships between teacher and pupil in a bad way</li> <li>• workplace dress codes are not as strict these days</li> <li>• uniform can be considered oppressive/depriving students of self-expression</li> <li>• uniform doesn't affect students' intelligence/own style may show originality</li> </ul>                           |              |
|                 | A3 Views derived from the passage may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the evidence for or against uniform is inconclusive</li> <li>• the way attitudes have changed in different countries/over time suggests local rules should be locally applicable</li> <li>• it depends on how strict the rules are</li> <li>• candidates may reflect the passage anecdotally</li> </ul>  |              |
|                 | The discriminator is the evaluation of the arguments, which requires candidates to draw inferences and make judgements about whether the advantages outweigh the disadvantages in this particular case. Perceptive responses may compare the different points of view of the speakers and this should affect the decision. Ideas and opinions must be derived from the passage, developing its claims and assessing their implications with clear and persuasive arguments.                       |              |

Marking criteria for Section 1, Question 1.*Table A, Writing:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

|               |              |   |
|---------------|--------------|---|
| Band 1 | 13–15 | Consistent sense of audience; authoritative and appropriate style. Fluent, varied sentences; wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Spelling, punctuation and grammar almost always accurate.  |
| Band 2 | 10–12 | Sense of audience mostly secure; there is evidence of style and fluency; sentences and vocabulary are effective. Secure overall structure; mostly well-sequenced. Spelling, punctuation and grammar generally accurate.                 |
| Band 3 | 7–9   | Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in correctly structured sentences; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task; mostly quite well structured. Minor, but more frequent, errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar. |
| Band 4 | 5–6   | Inconsistent style; simple or faultily constructed sentences; vocabulary simple; basic structure. Frequent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar.   |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | Inappropriate expression; the response is not always well sequenced. Errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar impair communication.  |
| Band 6 | 1–2   | Expression unclear; flawed sentence construction and order. Persistent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar impede communication.  |
| Band 7 | 0     | The response cannot be understood.  |

Table B, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

|               |             |   |
|---------------|-------------|---|
| Band 1 | 9–10 | Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing response. Reads effectively between the lines. Shows understanding by developing much of the reading material and assimilating it into a response to the task. |
| Band 2 | 7–8  | Some evidence of evaluation, engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of ideas from the passages.         |
| Band 3 | 5–6  | Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material adequately, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.                           |
| Band 4 | 3–4  | Selects points from the passages rather literally and/or uses the material thinly. Points should be connected.  |
| Band 5 | 1–2  | Parts of the response are relevant, though the material may be repeated or used inappropriately.  |
| Band 6 | 0    | There is very little or no relevance to the question or to the passages, or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passages.  |

Table A, Composition: Content and structure

|               |              | General criteria   | Specific criteria   |  |
|---------------|--------------|---|--|--|
|               |              |   | Descriptive Writing   | Narrative Writing   |
| Band 1 | 11–13 | W1: Content is complex, sophisticated and realistic.W2: Overall structure is secure and the constituent parts well balanced and carefully managed.  | Many well-defined and developed ideas and images create a convincing, original, overall picture with varieties of focus.   | The plot is convincing with elements of fiction such as description, characterisation and climax, and with cogent detail.                            |
| Band 2 | 9–10  | W1: Content develops some interesting and realistic features in parts of the writing.W2: Writing is orderly, and beginnings and endings are satisfactorily managed.   | Frequent, well-chosen images and details give an impression of reality, although the overall picture is not consistent.    | The plot incorporates some interesting features, but not consistently so: the reader may be aware of the creation of suspense and a sense of climax. |
| Band 3 | 7–8   | W1: Content is straightforward with ideas, features and images that satisfactorily address the task; some opportunities for development are taken.W2: Overall structure is competent and some sentences are well sequenced. | A selection of relevant ideas, images and details addresses the task, even where there is a tendency to write a narrative. | The plot is straightforward and cohesive with some identification of features such as character and setting.   |
| Band 4 | 5–6   | W1: Content consists of relevant ideas that are briefly developed.W2: Overall structure is easily followed, though some constituent parts are too long or too short to be effective.  | The task is addressed with a series of ordinary details, which may be more typical of a narrative.                         | Recording of relevant but sometimes unrealistic events outweighs other desirable elements of narrative fiction.                                      |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | W1: Content is simple, and the presentation of ideas and events may only be partially credible.W2: Overall structure is recognisable though paragraphing is inconsistent and sequences of sentences insecure.               | Where a narrative is written, the recording of events may preclude the use of sufficient descriptive detail.               | The plot is a simple narrative that may consist of events that are only partially credible or which are presented with partial clarity.              |

|               |            | General criteria   | Specific criteria  |  |
|---------------|------------|---|---|--|
|               |            |   | Descriptive Writing  | Narrative Writing                                       |
| Band 6 | 1–2 | W1: Content is inconsistent in relevance, interest and clarity.W2: Structure is frequently unclear, revealing a limited grasp of purpose. | Some relevant facts are identified, but the overall picture is unclear and lacks development. | The plot lacks coherence and narrates events indiscriminately. |
| Band 7 | 0   | W1: Content is rarely relevant and there is little material.W2: The structure is disorderly.  | Individual ideas are not properly communicated and the effect is one of incoherence.          | The plot is hard to follow and is only partially relevant.     |

| Band 4 | 5–6   | Writing is clear and accurate in places, and uses limited vocabulary and grammatical structures; errors occasionally serious.W3: Plain but mostly correct choice of words.W4: Correct use of simple sentence structures; some errors of sentence separation.W5: Frequent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar.              |
| Band 5 | 3–4   | Writing is simple in vocabulary and grammar; overall meaning can be followed, but errors are distracting and sometimes impair communication.W3: Words may sometimes communicate meaning satisfactorily.W4: Frequent weakness in sentence structures.W5: Errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar impair communication.          |
