General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate’s response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate’s response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Although the assessment objectives are weighted separately, they are inter-related.

AO1 requires informed insight and awareness of differing viewpoints, and AO2 requires knowledge and understanding of the specification content.
Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar Marking Guidance

- The spelling, punctuation and grammar assessment criteria are common to GCSE English Literature, GCSE History, GCSE Geography and GCSE Religious Studies.

- All candidates, whichever subject they are being assessed on, must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.

- Spelling, punctuation and grammar marking criteria should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have demonstrated rather than penalised for errors.

- Examiners should mark according to the marking criteria. All marks on the marking criteria should be used appropriately.

- All the marks on the marking criteria are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the marking criteria.

- Examiners should be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate’s response is not worthy of credit according to the marking criteria.

- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the marking criteria to a candidate’s response, the team leader must be consulted.

- Crossed out work should be marked unless the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

- Handwriting may make it difficult to see if spelling, punctuation and grammar are correct. Examiners must make every effort to assess spelling, punctuation and grammar fairly and if they genuinely cannot make an assessment, the team leader must be consulted.

- Specialist terms do not always require the use of complex terminology but the vocabulary used should appropriate to the subject and the question.

- Work by candidates with an amanuensis, scribe or typed script should be assessed for spelling, punctuation and grammar.

- Examiners are advised to consider the marking criteria in the following way:
  - How well does the response communicate the meaning?
  - What range of specialist terms is used?
  - How accurate is the spelling, punctuation and grammar?

  Answers which think that the Messiah will come are likely to use such reasons as:
  - it is written in Jewish scriptures
  - many rabbis teach that it will happen
  - it is an essential belief for some Jewish people

  Answers which do not think that the Messiah will come are likely to use such reasons as:
  - the circumstances for Israel will never be right
  - it did not happen at the time of the Holocaust
  - it was never meant to be literally true

  Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. If you are unsure of the validity of an answer, it must be sent to review.

Award marks as follows:
For a personal response with:

The quality of written communication will be assessed in this answer (strands i, ii and iii)

2 (c) AO1

The main reasons include:
- it outlines the fundamental belief in the one Almighty
- it reminds the Jewish people of what they believe
- it is recited at all major festivals
- it is a major part of Jewish prayer

Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. If you are unsure of the validity of an answer, it must be sent to review.

Indicative content
Reasons for supporting this statement could be:
- lots of Jewish people are happy to live in other countries
- Jewish people can practise their faith in other countries
- many Jewish people are concerned about the troubles in Israel

Answers which think that Jewish people need to live in Israel are likely to use such reasons as:
- Israel is a place of safety for Jewish people
- Israel offers a place where Jewish people can practise their faith without fear
- Israel has many sites of religious significance

Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. If you are unsure of the validity of an answer, it must be sent to review.

Award marks as follows:

Candidates who do not refer to Judaism in either (i) or (ii) cannot go beyond 3 marks for the whole of (d).

Indicative content

Answers which think it is important to celebrate Purim are likely to use such reasons as:
- it urges Jewish people to trust in the Almighty
- it shows that the Almighty does not abandon his people
- it introduces children to Jewish history

Answers which do not think it is important to celebrate Purim are likely to use such reasons as:
- it is only considered to be a minor festival
- there are other more significant festivals held each year
- the weekly celebration of Shabbat is more important

Other approaches are possible and must be marked according to the levels. If you are unsure of the validity of an answer, it must be sent to review.

Award marks as follows:

For a personal response with:
- one brief reason (e.g. there are other more significant festivals held each year)

1 mark

For a personal response with:
- two brief reasons
- or one developed reason (e.g. there are other more significant festivals held each year for example the Passover)

2 marks

For a personal response with:
- two reasons with one developed

3 marks

For a personal response with:
- two developed reasons

4 marks
The quality of written communication will be assessed in this answer (strands i, ii and iii)

5 (c)
AO1

The main reasons include:
- it marks the harvest festival which is one of the pilgrimage festivals
- it reminds the Jewish people of the 40 years spent in the desert
- it reminds them of their escape from Egypt
- it is an important family tradition and celebration

| Level 1 | 1-2 | Little understanding of the issue shown, typically by:
- giving a brief reason
- not explaining but only describing the issue.
The answer is likely to be in basic English. The skills needed to produce effective writing will not normally be present. The writing may have some coherence and will be generally comprehensible, but lack both clarity and organisation. High incidence of syntactical and/or spelling errors. |
| Level 2 | 3-4 | Basic understanding of the issue is shown typically by:
- using two brief reasons
- or a developed reason.
The candidate is likely to express understanding with a limited command of English and little use of specialist vocabulary. The range of skills needed to produce effective writing is likely to be limited. There are likely to be passages which lack clarity and proper organisation. Frequent syntactical and/or spelling errors are likely to be present. |
| Level 3 | 5-6 | A more developed understanding of the issue is shown typically by:
- using three brief reasons
- or a fully developed reason
- or two reasons with one developed.
The candidate is likely to express understanding in a clear style of English and some use of specialist vocabulary. The candidate will demonstrate most of the skills needed to produce effective extended writing but there will be lapses in organisation. Some syntactical and/or spelling errors are likely to be present. |
| Level 4 | 7-8 | A clear understanding of the issue is shown typically by:
  • using four brief reasons
  • or two developed reasons
  • or three reasons with one developed
  • or a comprehensive explanation using one reason only.
The candidate is likely to express understanding in a clear and correct style of English with a correct use of specialist vocabulary where appropriate. The skills needed to produce convincing extended writing in place. Good organisation and clarity. Very few syntactical and/or spelling errors may be found. Excellent organisation and planning. |
