Alex is in a nightclub. He wants to buy a drink but realises he has no money. He sees Beth at the bar with a £10 note in her hand. Alex pushes Beth and she drops the £10 note. Before Alex can take the £10 note another customer picks it up and gives it back to Beth. Alex goes to the toilet. Tom is washing his hands and his wallet is on the sink in front of him. Alex says 'Give me that or I'll punch you!' Tom gives Alex the wallet saying, 'Take it. I'm not scared of you.' Alex leaves the toilet with Tom's wallet. Tom tells Taylor, a door supervisor, what has happened. Taylor sees Alex and goes towards him. Alex kicks Taylor hard in the stomach and she drops her mobile phone. Alex picks it up and runs outside.

Kareem is a drug dealer who is owed a lot of money by Eve and Charlie. They both refuse to pay the money back, so he decides to kill them. When Kareem sees Eve in a supermarket car park, he drives his car straight at her killing her instantly. Kareem knows that Charlie is due to travel to France the next day by ferry, so he plants a bomb on it in order to kill him. However, Charlie is ill on the day of travel and stays at home. The bomb explodes on the ferry killing many passengers. Kareem decides to try and frighten Charlie into repaying the money. He sets fire to the garage at the side of Charlie's house. However, the fire gets out of control and spreads to the house killing Charlie who was asleep upstairs.

- 5 Advise whether Alex is criminally liable for robbery. [20]
- 6 Advise whether Kareem has the required mens rea to convict him for the deaths of Eve, the ferry passengers, and Charlie.
You do not need to discuss the specific crimes. [20]

Discuss the extent to which this statement is accurate. [20]

Part 2

Answer the three questions below.

The first two questions are based on the scenarios below. The scenarios are not related.

Jack and his partner Sara are heavy drinkers. Jack has been advised by his doctor to reduce his drinking or risk causing serious damage to his health. Jack ignores the advice and continues to drink regularly. Recently, he has been diagnosed with alcohol dependence syndrome and depression. One Saturday night, after Jack has drunk two bottles of vodka, he suddenly accuses Sara of deliberately smashing a framed photograph of his parents. Sara denies this, but Jack lashes out in a violent rage and hits Sara over the head with a heavy metal ashtray killing her instantly.

Anika is an art dealer who wants to buy a specific painting from Nina, a famous artist. However, the painting is too expensive for Anika, so she decides to steal it from Nina's art gallery. When she thinks no-one is watching, Anika walks over to the painting. She leans across and puts her hands on the frame, getting ready to lift it off the wall. However, Nina sees her and shouts: 'Please don't touch!' Anika leaves empty-handed. Later that day she returns to steal the painting. As she approaches the entrance to the gallery, Anika notices two security guards patrolling the building. She turns around and does not enter the art gallery. Nina is so concerned that the painting might be stolen that she swaps the original with a copy. That night, Anika breaks into the gallery and takes the painting.

- 8 Advise whether Jack can avoid liability for murder by using the defence of diminished responsibility. [20]
- 9 Advise whether Anika is criminally liable for the crime of attempted theft in relation to the painting. You do not need to discuss any other crimes in your answer. [20]
